In 1977 the Department of Justice initiated a survey of public legal information in Canada. The survey was designed to identify the needs of the public for legal information and to determine the extent of the existing legal information resources. The survey was conducted in three stages. The first stage was a preliminary survey of the existing legal information resources. The second stage was a survey of the needs of the public for legal information. The third stage was a survey of the existing legal information resources. The survey was conducted in three stages. The third stage was a survey of the existing legal information resources.

CANADIAN DIRECTORY

OF

PUBLIC LEGAL INFORMATION

The Canadian Directory of Public Legal Information is a comprehensive guide to the legal information resources available in Canada. It is designed to help the public find the legal information they need. The Directory is organized into three main sections: National, Provincial, and Territorial. Each section contains a list of the legal information resources available in that jurisdiction. The Directory is updated annually.

FOREWORD

In 1977 the Programmes and Law Information Development Section of the Federal Department of Justice undertook to organize a survey of existing Law for the Layperson materials and programmes, with a view of identifying what needed to be done to make federal laws more accessible to the public. Using funds available under the Canada Employment Commission's Summer Job Corps Programme, teams of students, each working under the direction of a law student project leader and a law professor as adviser, gathered information in each of the provinces. The survey was so successful that it was decided to edit the results and publish them as a national directory of public legal information. To fill in some obvious gaps and to bring the survey up to date, the Department of Justice obtained additional funds from the Summer Job Corps Programme in 1978. While some of this information may be outdated, and omissions may have been made, the data contained in this Directory reflects as accurately as possible, the situation as of August, 1978.

The Directory is comprised of thirteen volumes - one for each of the ten provinces, two national volumes (one English, and one French) and an Index volume. It is the Department's intention to update the Directory on a regular basis and to publish replacement volumes from time to time as it appears to be necessary.

Without the effort of many people in each province, the publication of this Directory would not have been possible. The Department of Justice wishes to express its sincere appreciation to all those citizens, groups, associations, institutions and agencies who provided the information for the Directory; to the survey teams who laboured with great enthusiasm and dedication on the task; to the law professors and others who volunteered their time and expertise as advisers; and finally to the project leaders who not only were responsible for directing the survey and reporting the results to the Department, but also for administering the project funds. The Consolidated Index of the Canadian Directory was compiled by the Department of Justice in Ottawa. Special thanks must go to Marino Mendo, Guy Gosselin and Laurel Montrose for their active participation in this project in the summer of 1979.

The Department is pleased to have the co-operation of the Canadian Law Information Council in the final production and distribution of the Directory. This collaboration is appropriate as the Council is a Federal-Provincial body whose objective is to "enhance the quality and increase the availability of information pertaining to the law in Canada for the benefit of the Canadian Community". Copies of this or other volumes of the Directory may be purchased from:

Reader comments and criticisms respecting the Directory are invited and should be sent to the Council at the above address.

Ottawa, May 1979

USER'S GUIDE TO THE CONSOLIDATED INDEX OF THE DIRECTORY

The "Consolidated Index" volume of the Canadian Directory of Public Legal Information consists of a comprehensive bilingual index to the material catalogued in a series of 13 volumes, the National and provincial volumes. Like the indexes which may be found at the back of each of the substantive volumes, this index is divided into two parts: a subject index to organizations and a subject index to publications/audio-visual material. Unlike the other volumes, however, this index includes public legal information organizations and activities in all of the provinces, as well as information and services provided by federal departments and agencies and national organizations. The provincially-oriented material may be found in the respective individual provincial volume; federally-oriented material may be found in the "National" volume.

If you are looking for the names of organizations active in the area of "Women and the Law" for example, turn to the "Subject Index to Organizations". Under the subject heading "Women and the Law" you will find the names of such organizations listed under the name of the province in which the organization is active. On the far right-hand side of the entry you will also find a volume and page-number reference i.e. B.C.-27. This indicates that a description of this particular organization and its activities can be found at page 27 of the British Columbia volume. This description will include the name and address of the organization, together with the name of a contact person. Located under this narrative summary you will also find a listing of law-related publications and audio-visual material provided by this organization.

If, on the other hand, you are interested in publication concerning legal issues which affect women, turn to the "Subject Index to Publications/Audio-Visual Material". Again, look under the appropriate subject heading. Here you will find a province-by-province reference to publications and audio-visual material which are listed in the body of the directory. This reference will be to the alpha-numeric part of the publication. For example, under "British Columbia" you will find B.C.-196; this is a reference to publication #196 in the British Columbia volume. As publications are listed in each directory in numerical order, look for #196 in this directory. There you will find a brief description of the publication together with details of its price and availability.

AVERTISSEMENT

L'Index Consolidé du Répertoire Canadien de l'Information Juridique est essentiellement un index bilingue de toutes les données cataloguées dans une série de 13 volumes, dont un volume "national" (disponible en français et en anglais) et dix volumes provinciaux. Tout comme les index qui se trouvent à la fin de chaque volume de la série, l'Index Consolidé se divise en deux parties: un index sujet des organismes et un index sujet des publications et de la documentation audio-visuelle. Toutefois, contrairement aux autres volumes, cet Index comprend les organismes d'information juridique et les activités de toutes les provinces ainsi que la documentation et les services offerts tant par les agences et les ministères fédéraux que par les organismes nationaux. Les données relatives aux provinces se retrouvent dans chaque volume provincial respectif; d'autre part les données relatives au fédéral se retrouvent dans le volume national.

Prenons comme exemple "La Femme et la Loi". Pour déterminer le nom des organismes actifs dans ce domaine, il faudra examiner dans l'Index sujet des organismes sous la rubrique correspondante i.e. "La Femme et la Loi". Sous cette rubrique, on retrouvera le nom des organismes actifs dans le domaine et ce pour chaque province. Dans chaque cas, le nom de l'organisme est suivi d'une référence au volume ainsi qu'au numéro de page i.e. B.C. 27. Ceci signifie qu'on trouvera une description de l'organisme et de ses activités à la page 27 du volume de la Colombie-Britannique. La description comprendra le nom et l'adresse de l'organisme ainsi que le nom de la personne avec laquelle il faudra communiquer pour obtenir des renseignements. De plus on pourra trouver après le résumé des activités une liste des publications et de la documentation audio-visuelle fournies par cet organisme.

Quant aux publications concernant des sujets particuliers comme par exemple "La Famille", il faudra, pour les connaître, consulter l'Index sujet des Publications et de la documentation audio-visuelle sous la rubrique correspondante i.e. "Droit de la Famille". Sous cette rubrique, on retrouvera B.C. 196; d'exemple, sous "Colombie-Britannique", on retrouvera B.C. 196; ceci signifie qu'il faut se référer à la publication cotée No. 196 (et non la page 196) dans le volume de la Colombie-Britannique. Etant donné que toutes les publications de chaque répertoire sont cataloguées dans l'ordre numérique, il suffira de chercher la publication cotée #196 dans le répertoire approprié. Sous cette cote, on trouvera une brève description de la publication ainsi que les renseignements sur le prix et la disponibilité.

production et de la distribution finale du répertoire. Cette collaboration est due au fait que le Conseil est un organisme fédéral-provincial dont l'objectif est "d'améliorer la qualité et favoriser l'accessibilité à la documentation relevant du domaine juridique au Canada au profit de la collectivité canadienne." On peut se procurer des exemplaires de cet index ou d'autres volumes du répertoire au

PREFACE

En 1977, la Section des Programmes et de l'information juridique du ministère fédéral de la Justice a entrepris de répertorier la documentation et les services visant à informer les citoyens de leurs droits, dans le but d'identifier les mesures à prendre pour rendre les lois fédérales plus accessibles au public. Grâce à des fonds accordés par la Commission de l'emploi et de l'immigration dans le cadre du Programme de la compagnie des jeunes travailleurs, des équipes d'étudiants, dirigées par un étudiant en droit faisant fonction de chef de projet et par un professeur de droit faisant fonction de conseiller, ont recueilli des informations dans chacune des provinces. L'étude a obtenu un succès tel qu'il a été décidé de publier les résultats et d'en faire un répertoire national de l'information juridique. Pour combler certaines lacunes évidentes et mettre l'étude à jour, le ministère de la Justice a obtenu en 1978, des fonds additionnels du Programme de la compagnie des jeunes travailleurs. Bien qu'il y ait toujours sans doute un certain nombre d'erreurs et d'omissions, on veut faire en sorte que le répertoire constitue un exposé fidèle de la situation au mois d'août 1978.

Le répertoire comprend treize volumes - un pour chacune des dix provinces, deux volumes à caractère national (l'un en anglais, l'autre en français) et un index. Le Ministère a l'intention de tenir le répertoire à jour et, à l'occasion, de publier de nouveaux volumes, si nécessaire.

Sans la collaboration, dans chacune des provinces, d'un grand nombre de personnes, la publication de ce répertoire aurait été impossible. Le ministère de la Justice désire transmettre ses remerciements les plus sincères à tous les citoyens, groupes, associations, institutions et organismes qui ont fourni des informations destinées au répertoire; aux équipes de recherche qui ont fait preuve de beaucoup d'enthousiasme et de dévouement dans leur travail; aux professeurs de droit et autres qui ont offert gratuitement leurs services et leurs connaissances à titre de consultants; et enfin aux chefs de projet qui se sont chargés non seulement de diriger la recherche et de rendre compte des résultats au Ministère, mais également d'administrer les fonds du projet. L'Index Consolidé du Répertoire Canadien a été compilé par le Ministère de la Justice à Ottawa grâce à la participation active de Marino Mendo, Guy Gosselin et Laurel Montrose durant l'été 1979.

Le Ministère est heureux de compter sur la collaboration du Conseil canadien de la documentation juridique en vue de la
